SUPERVISOR HAAS INVITES RESIDENTS TO FINAL CHILL ON THE HILL EVENT OF THE 2012 SEASON

Supervisor Applauds Popular Concert Series that Attracted Thousands This Year

Milwaukee, WI – Supervisor Jason Haas, District 14, is inviting residents to enjoy the final “Chill on the Hill” concert and gathering of the 2012 season, which is set for Tuesday, August 28, 2012, starting at 6 p.m. at the Humboldt Park band shell. The event will feature salsa group D'Calleson as the headliner as well as a free salsa lesson and dance demonstration from Salsabrosa.

"I thank the Bay View Neighborhood Association and everyone at Milwaukee County Parks for another terrific season of live music for residents of Milwaukee County," said Supervisor Haas. "Chill on the Hill is bringing people to Bay View, some permanently; I welcome them heartily and look forward to another great season in 2013."

Average attendance per show during the 2012 season was 2,200 people, according to Bay View Neighborhood Association Chill on the Hill Sponsorship Chair Patty Pritchard Thompson.

Chill on the Hill is an outdoor, summer local music concert series on Tuesday nights at Humboldt Park in the Bay View neighborhood. Opening acts start at 6 p.m.; main acts perform from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The Bay View Neighborhood Association operates the concert series in partnership with the Milwaukee County Parks, with the support of numerous local sponsors, including area restaurants, vendors and organizations.
